Guidelines For Authors

Pakistan Journal of Professional Psychology: Research and Practice offers a venue for the publication of the most cutting-edge scientific research in numerous branches of psychology as an international, multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal. We encourage the publication of innovative empirical studies.

Manuscripts: Articles written only in English language are accepted for publication. Authors should prepare manuscripts according to the latest edition of publication manual of the American Psychological Association (APA-7). A manuscript should not exceed 4000 words with maximum 30 references. Spellings should follow Webster's Dictionary or Oxford English Dictionary. All submissions including review articles must be submitted in Microsoft Word Document file having: A title, left aligned, Font size 12, Font type Time New Roman, double-spaced text with a page margin of 1 inch from all round.

Abstract: Abstract should range between 120-150 words for all articles except review articles. An abstract should be presented as a concise summary of the whole paper, not just the conclusion. It should state the purpose of the study, hypotheses, method, analysis, major findings and conclusion. Keywords should be included right below the abstract.

References: All the in-text citations should be included in the reference list. References should be formatted according the APA's latest manual in the text and list of references. Total number of references should not exceed 30.

Plagiarism Report: A Plagiarism Report indicating a similarity index < 19% must be submitted. Note: It should be clear to the author(s) that editorial board of PJPPRP has the right accept or reject a submitted manuscript at any stage and also to edit the manuscript for accuracy and precision. Authors are also directed to visit Ethical Guidelines section Ethical Guidelines for Authors for further information.

Authorship Agreement Form: Authorship Agreement Form must be submitted with the manuscript to show an agreement to the policies of PJPPRP. This form needs to be submitted after filling all the section and signed by all the authors.

Peer Review Process: PJPPRP has a double-blind peer reviewing policy. Initial screening for the suitability of the article for publication in PJPPRP is carried out by the editorial committee and subsequently the manuscript is sent for blind reviewing. Each article is reviewed by one local professional and one professional from academically advanced countries. Authors are informed about the comments or suggestions of the reviewers and are required to revise their paper in stipulated time period.

Authors' Note: It should include the detail of all authors including detailed of all author(s) names, sequence in authorship, affiliations and correspondence detail. For this purpose the email id and postal addresses of all the authors must be provided. Affiliation at the time of study, acknowledgments, grant related information for the study, etc. and change in affiliation/address (if required), should be brought into the notice of the Editor.
